

Creating safer spaces in the working environment

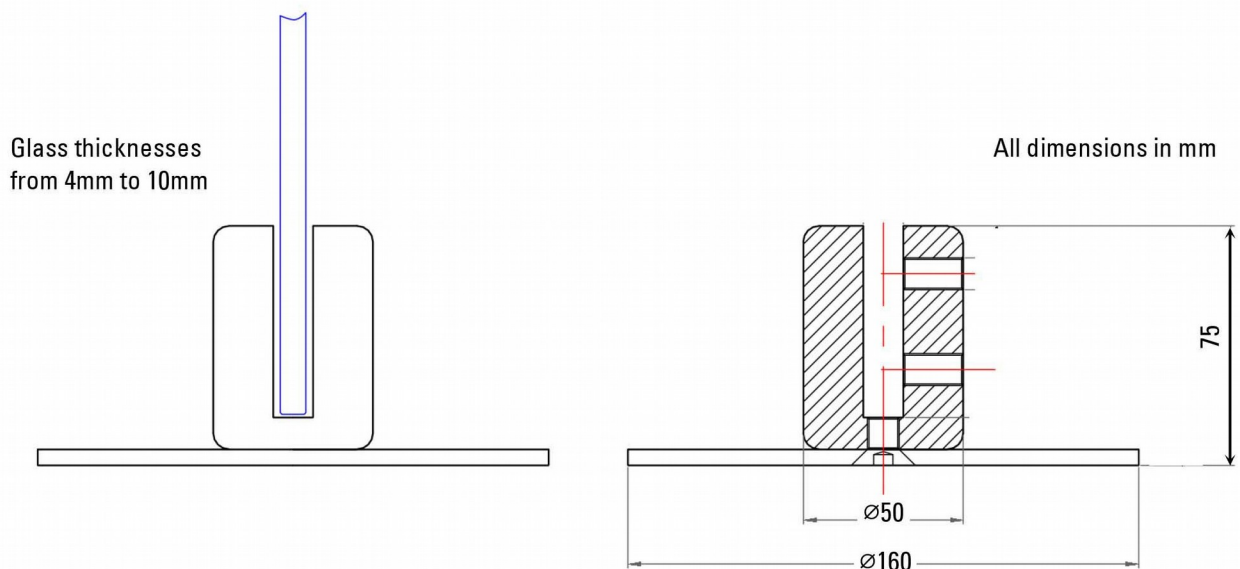

VetroScreen® offers barrier protection from the direct aerosols associated with coughs and sneezes.

Assembled and adjusted with just an Allen key, VetroScreen® is simple to set up and is designed for glass, polycarbonate or other clear sheet materials.

VetroScreen®

- Freestanding powder coated screen support.
- Adjustable aluminium clamp and heavy steel base featuring self-adhesive pads.
- Suitable for glass, polycarbonate and other sheet materials in thicknesses from 4mm to 10mm.
- Supplied with four shims per clamp.
- Maximum recommended screen size for glass 1000mm width x 800mm high.
- For longer widths additional supports can be used.
- Two colours available - grey / black

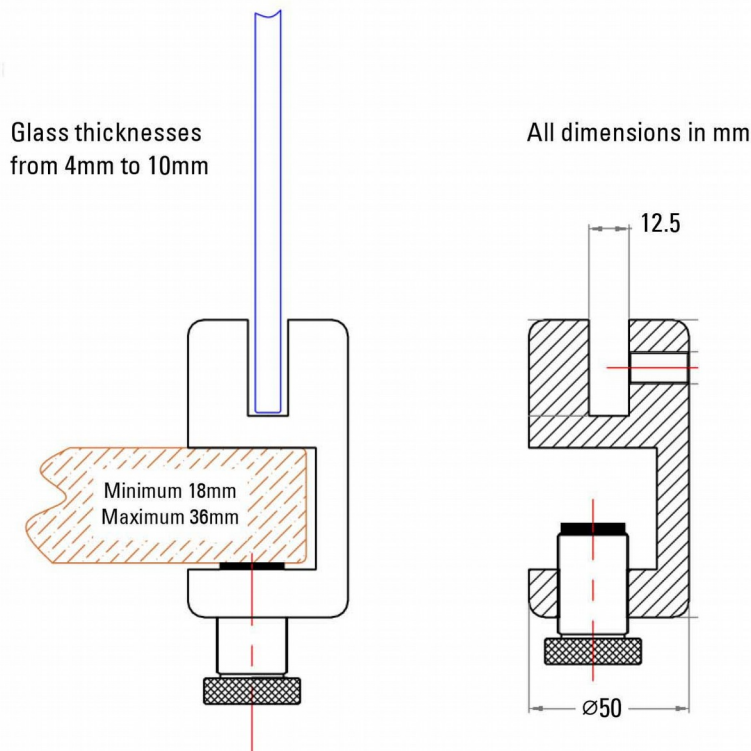

VetroScreen® clamps offer barrier protection from the direct aerosols associated with coughs and sneezes.

Assembled and adjusted with just an Allen key, VetroScreen® clamps can be fitted to any horizontal surface from 18mm to 36mm thick.

VetroScreen®

- Powder coated screen clamp suitable for counters, tables or desks.
- Adjustable aluminium clamp secures to counter, table or desk edge.
- Suitable for glass, polycarbonate and other sheet materials in thicknesses from 4mm to 10mm.
- Supplied with four shims per clamp.
- Maximum recommended screen size for glass 1000mm width x 1000mm high.
- For longer widths additional supports can be used.
- Two colours available - grey / black

Glass Designs Ltd

For more information on VetroScreen®

call us

0208 858 8050

or email

info@glass-design.net